

Danish top class ensemble Vocal Line on their first ever Christmas tour in Germany

Vocal Line visits Berlin and Hamburg in November

- Vocal Line has had a hectic and successful year with several international visits. Amongst others New York, Washington D.C. and Hannover. Now the ensemble is preparing for their Christmas tour, which normally only takes place in Denmark. But the offer of singing in Kaiser-Wilhelm-Gedächtniskirche in Berlin and also hitting Hamburg was not to refuse.

At the Christmas concerts the repertoire will consist of pop, jazz and experimental arrangements of well-known Christmas songs. The German audience should also bring their Danish phrasebook, as Vocal Line will present new arrangements of Danish Christmas songs. Also, the concert will of course contain a great number of songs from the standard Vocal Line repertoire.

Danish Darlings

Earlier this year Vocal Line visited Germany with a number of completely sold out concerts. And the ensemble always looks forward to visiting Germany as the best audience of course is found there. The Germans love Vocal Line and Vocal Line loves Germany - even more at Christmas time.

Facts: Vocal Line

Vocal Line has won a number of international prizes and is one of the leading ensembles within development of rhythmic choir music, in Denmark as in the rest of the world. It is based in Aarhus, Jutland, and Director Jens Johansen can celebrate his 20th anniversary along with the rest of Vocal Line in 2011.

Facts: Tour 27.-29. Nov. 2009

- 27/11: Kaiser-Wilhelm-Gedächtniskirche, Berlin 20.00
- 29/11: Christmas Concert with Gospolitans in Matthäuskirche, HH-Winterhude, Hamburg 15.00